

Air1 is a very important part of my community it provides a christian alterative to all the immorale programming that is present on the radio today. My family and I can listen without being afraid of what we are going to hear. Without this station our city would be without a great service to all people who live in the community.